February 15, 2017

Dear editor < EditorName > and reviewers,

We are thankful for reviewing our manuscript and the comments that helped to improve the paper. We revised the manuscript according to comments of the < No.reviews > reviewers and are re-submitting the manuscript for consideration for publication in < Journal >. < MoreText. >

To assist the assessment of our changes we have submitted two versions of the revised manuscript: one with highlighted changes and another without any highlighting. Note, that we did not highlight changes in the supplemental materials, equations, references and title and did not include any figures in this version.

Kind regards,

< Author1 >, < Author2 >
